When to Register – Deadlines

New Registrants

Individuals who are not currently registered in the State of Washington may register by mail 30 or more days prior to the election, or they may register in person at the Auditor’s Office up to 15 days before the election.

Address Changes (anywhere within Washington)

If you were previously registered anywhere in Washington, and have moved, you must change your residential address 30 or more days prior to the election to be able to vote based on your new address. You may call, email, or mail your address change to our office (contact information to the right).

Name Changes

Name changes must be submitted 30 or more days prior to the election. You may use the registration form provided below to update your voter registration record.

CLOSING OF THE BOOKS

In Washington State, voter registration is closed to all address and name changes during the 30 days preceding an election. Late registrations and name/address changes will be held until after certification of the current election.
