

Thurston County - Legislative District No. 22

Only voters residing in District No. 22 will vote on this position.

Legislative District No. 22 - State Representative Position No. 1

Steve is a university graduate, father, husband and President-elect of the Environmental Education Association of Washington, as well as a past Chartermember of Salmon Homecoming Alliance, Olympia Jaycees, and the Thurston Environmental Action League. He has been a Policy Analyst for the Northwest Indian Fisheries Commission for 26 years.

Working class families and small businesses face a heavy burden and we have a responsibility to integrate community values with our economic goals to create clean energy jobs and local employment opportunities. His outstanding combination of experience with the Legislature, Congress, natural resource management, education, communications and business guarantee the makings of an excellent legislator.

Steve is supported by Congressman Norm Dicks, as well as many state legislators, such as Sen. Kevin Ranker and Sen. Debbie Regala. We need someone ready day one, and the only person that can do that is Steve. Think Big! Vote Steve Robinson for 22.

I will seek to bring unity to our community with good policy. I will always be a vote against state worker layoffs and benefit cuts. I will always be a vote to bring jobs back to Washington and keep the jobs we have. I will support environmental policies that keep Washington clean and beautiful. I will be a candidate of the people, for the people, and by the people. Above all, I will give the 22nd District hometown representation from a hometown candidate.

Voters of District 22! Examine the choice of candidates before you. A roster of half-a-dozen Democratic and one Democrat candidate versus a single GOP.

As voters, we never resolved the mother's abortion-on-demand question. It has bloomed. We are seeing same-sexers, terminally ill, and unborn calling for rights to have life and sex and to destroy themselves at the same time.

The GOP leadership has never granted their solid third of pro-life voters a fair share of Party control. Democrats need to rededicate themselves as the party of the people. We do not need colorably legal abortion, etc., to preserve the pursuit of happiness for ourselves and our posterity.

The PDC now permits a candidate to run, even if he does not believe in collecting contributions, but only spending his own money. Me, too. Thank you.

In this time of Draconian budget cuts, who will be the voice for the most vulnerable – children in need, our aging seniors, disabled, and mentally ill? Born into a logging community where social problems raged, I chose a life of helping families be whole again. I offer hope, community partnerships, a recovery focus, business experience and rational solutions to the issues that face us.

I'm a 3rd term Tumwater City Council member, a director in a 3-county non-profit organization that provides mental health and addiction recovery services, and the first woman Executive Director for the Thurston County Chamber of Commerce. I have the skills and the experience necessary to get the job done.

If ever there were a time to stand up for those who have no voice, it is now – I, Judi Tennant Hoefling, will be that voice.

As a Lacey City Council member, I voted to reduce spending by more than $2 million without cutting jobs or services. I'll use this same financial responsibility in addressing the $5 billion deficit facing Washington State. This deficit is a serious threat to our public and private sector jobs, and our already challenged economy. I'll work to stabilize jobs for public servants, while creating more opportunities in the private sector. I'll reject short term budget fixes in favor of reality-based budgeting. I'll fund all retirement promises made to state employees. Also, because my wife and I are raising three school age children, I'll fund education first and advocate for local control to schools. Smart spending, eliminating waste and fraud in government, and removing the shackles from small business will grow our economy and create jobs for everyone. A vote for me is a vote for A New Direction.

Stew Henderson is a proven, progressive leader who will fight for the values we share. Former Assistant Director at L&I, Stew now runs a small business. Stew is a problem solver who gets things done.

Stew's priorities in the legislature: creating jobs, fully funding our schools, and protecting the environment. He'll work to reform our unfair tax system, and defend critical services and equal rights for all.

A lifelong Democrat, Stew is the only candidate nominated by the Democratic Party. Stew has earned endorsements from former Congresswoman Jolene Unsoeld; County Commissioners Sandra Romero and Karen Valenzuela; Washington Federation of State Employees; Washington Conservation Voters; Stephen Buxbaum, Doug Mah, and 14 other Lacey, Tumwater and Olympia City Council and School Board members. Plus hundreds of our neighbors.

Stew and his wife, Kathy Cox, met in the Peace Corps in Africa. Their sons Nat and Josh graduated from Olympia public schools.

It's time for an honest conversation about tax reform! I survived a childhood of poverty thanks to courageous caseworkers and a public education system that rewarded my hard work and determination. Now, education funding and critical programs that protect vulnerable families are at serious risk due to our budget crisis. Creating a fair and adequate tax system is essential in stabilizing our State budget. I'm a leader with extensive experience in budgeting and public finance who will fight for our interests – funding our schools; empowering small businesses to create jobs; protecting our senior citizens, and sustaining our environment!

As a father of two young children, I am inspired to serve and help build a brighter future!

Endorsed by retiring Representative Brendan Williams, the Federation of State Employees, Firefighters, Teachers, and hundreds of community leaders; I now need your vote to be your advocate in the legislature! Thank you. www.ChrisReykdal.com
