HOW TO WITHDRAW THE DENIAL OF PATERNITY CHECKLIST

Use the forms and instructions in this packet only if the following factors apply to your situation:

- ✓ You signed and filed a Denial of Paternity in Washington State;
- ✓ Less than sixty (60) days have passed since the filing of that Denial of Paternity with the Washington State Registrar of Vital Statistics

AND

- ✓ You wish to withdraw the Denial of Paternity you filed regarding this child.

If more than sixty (60) days has passed since the filing of the Denial of Paternity, or if you are challenging a denial of Paternity, do not use this packet. Please refer the self-help center for a different packet.

READ ME: It is very important for you to know that when you sign a court document, you may be helping or hurting your court case. Before you sign any court document or get involved with a court case, it is important that you carefully read the document to make sure you are doing the right thing. You may also want to contact a lawyer for legal advice and help with those issues you do not understand. The Self-Service Center has a list of local attorneys who can give you legal advice and who can help you on a task-by-task basis for a fee. If you need help with the forms, procedures and rules of the court, there is a Family Court Facilitator available to assist you.
