AGREED CHANGE IN THE PARENTING
CHECKLIST

Use the forms and instructions in this packet only if the following factors apply to your situation:

- ✓ You and the other party have agreed to change the current visitation schedule;
- ✓ You have an existing Parenting Plan or Custody Decree that needs to be modified;
- ✓ You and the other party have already agreed on the changes that need to be made and both of you will sign the documents necessary to make this change an Order of the Court.

AND

- ✓ The modification in custody or visitation you are seeking will not necessitate a change on the amount of child support paid or in the party receiving support.

If this is NOT an agreed modification OR if there is a need to modify support also, you should not use this packet. Please return to the Self-Help Center for a different packet.

README: It is very important for you to know that when you sign a court document, you may be helping or hurting your court case. Before you sign any court document or get involved with a court case, it is important that you carefully read the document to make sure you are doing the right thing. You may also want to contact a lawyer for legal advice and help with those issues you do not understand. The Self-Help Center has a list of local attorneys who can help you on a task-by-task basis for a fee. If you need help with the forms, procedures and rules of the court, there is a Family Court Facilitator available to assist you.
