

Ideas for Neighborhood Welcome Packets

---

- “Welcome to the neighborhood” letter
  - List of neighborhood association officers and contact numbers
  - List of homeowners, addresses and phone numbers for neighborhood
-
- Family Emergency Preparedness book
  - Local emergency numbers and hotline numbers (police, fire, hospital, utilities, poison control, etc.)
  - Literature related to the area
  - Emergency evacuation routes (maps, driving directions)
  - Radio and television stations listing, weather information resources, and emergency radio frequencies
  - A whistle
  - Instructional pamphlets (how to use fire extinguisher, etc.)
  - Emergency Prep class schedules (CPR, First aid, etc.)
  - Coupons for readiness supplies
  - Message board locations
  - List of members with special training (CPR, etc.) who are available for emergency response
  - Household info form to be filled out and kept with the neighborhood coordinator. This form will include the residents’ personal information as well as contact numbers, and emergency information.