

Logic Model– Thurston County Active Design for a Healthier Community – Healthiest Cities & Counties Challenge 2016-2018

ACTIVITIES	OUTPUTS	OUTCOMES	GOALS
Active Design for a Healthier Community <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Form community partnerships/workgroups</li> <li>• Conduct trail walkshed analysis, identifying opportunities for increased access to trails from nearby housing/employment.</li> <li>• Develop trail wayfinding signage strategy (includes inventory of current signs)</li> <li>• Share results of walkshed analysis with partners, community stakeholders, and local government officials</li> <li>• Implement new trail access connections and paths</li> <li>• Implement trail wayfinding signage in priority locations</li> </ul>	Active Design for a Healthier Community → # of members of workgroup on trail walkshed analysis; # of local governments involved in trail wayfinding signage strategy development → # of new organizations/officials involved in Thurston Thrives Community Design Action Team → # Reports/presentations given to stakeholders → # Plans developed or informed by the project (examples: regional trail wayfinding sign strategy; Lacey Bicycle &amp; Pedestrian Plan)	Active Design for a Healthier Community Walkscore changes → # of new trail connecting paths or improved connections → # of areas with new/improved trail signage or other trail features → Levels of physical activity (Thurston County adults and youth)	Active Design for a Healthier Community Improved built environment... → Easier access to opportunities for physical activity ↓ → Increased physical activity among adults and youth in Thurston County ↓ Healthy community

