Name: Rainier Community Garden

Address: Rainier High School | 308 2nd St W, Rainier, WA 98576

Age of Garden: 11 years

Purpose: To bring the Rainier community and surrounding areas together and provide educational gardening opportunities for everyone while growing fresh food and impacting local hunger issues.

People Served: We garden as a collective group and donate a majority to the Rainier Emergency Food Center, our local food bank. Over the past five years, an average of 77% of the produce harvested has been donated to the The Rainier Emergency Food Center which serves 200 families on a weekly basis and 2,100 individuals per month. The other 23% has been taken home by our volunteers who come to help during work parties. We have on average about 7 - 10 community volunteers who come to work parties or events.
